Bolaven Plateau Classic Full-Day Tour
Cool highlands, dramatic waterfalls and the real taste of Lao coffee

STARTING PRICE (visible at the top)

From $XX per person — Standard. Comfort upgrades available.

DREAM PARAGRAPH (2–3 sentences only)

Leave the heat of Pakse behind and climb into the cool, green highlands of the Bolaven Plateau. In one day you stand above Laos' highest waterfalls, walk through a lively highland market, and taste coffee roasted by people who grow it themselves. This is the essential Bolaven day — private, flexible, and built around nature, villages and coffee.

- Tad Yuang — multi-tier falls with viewpoints and swimming possibilities
- Highland market and everyday village life
- Seed-to-cup coffee tasting with a local expert

FULL DESCRIPTIVE ITINERARY

PAKSE – BOLAVEN PLATEAU – PAKSE

Departure: 08:00 from your hotel in Pakse.

The road climbs quickly from the Mekong plain into a cooler climate of coffee gardens, pine trees and mist. The first stop is Tad Champee, a graceful cascade set in forest — a gentle introduction to the plateau.

Continue to Tad Fane, the tallest waterfall in Laos. Twin streams plunge about 120 metres into a deep green gorge. From the wooden viewing platform the scale of the canyon is immediate. Adventurous travellers can add an optional zipline across the falls (advance reservation recommended).

A short drive brings you to Tad Yuang, about 40 metres high and framed by jungle. Viewpoints from the top, the side and the base let you see the waterfall from every angle.

Stop at Lak 40 Café, set among gardens of coffee, tea and cocoa. Taste freshly brewed Bolaven coffee and browse local products while learning why this plateau is the coffee heartland of Laos.

Continue to Ban Kok Phung Tai Market, where villagers sell fresh produce, forest herbs, woven textiles and locally grown coffee.

The afternoon continues toward the Tad Lo area: rivers, forest paths and small villages. Nearby, the Ngae community of Ban Khieng Tad Soung keeps strong spiritual traditions, visible in ancestral worship and the Ho Kuan ceremonial halls.

The day ends in a village known for organic coffee and Katu-style weaving. Local coffee specialist Mr. Vieng explains the process from seed to cup and invites you to a tasting. Quality coffee and handwoven textiles are available before the return drive to Pakse.

Vehicle journey: approximately 220 km | Meals: not included (lunch possible on site) | Return to Pakse in the late afternoon.
